

May Donoghue Direct Examination

Objectives

- May Donoghue was excited to see her friend, Audrey, and to enjoy a fun evening at the Wellmeadow Café.
- She had no reason to be vigilant about defective products from the Café.

Worries

- May did not look at the contents of her dish as Mr. Minchella poured the ginger beer over the ice cream.
- She was distracted by her conversation with Audrey.

Sequences

1. Scene 1: Mr. Minchella seats May & Audrey
 - a. HL: Table at Café
 - b. Where
 - c. Who seated
 - d. Menu
 - e. Conversation with Audrey.
2. Scene 2: Audrey places the order
 - a. HL: Order
 - b. What was ordered
 - c. Who made it
 - d. Who took the order
 - e. Conversation with Audrey
3. Scene 3: Mr. Minchella delivers the order

- a. HL: Delivery of Scotsman's Float
 - b. Who brought it
 - c. What was it
 - d. Describe the bottle. See photo.
 - e. Exhibit 1.
 - f. Who served it.
4. Scene 4: Mr. Minchella serves the order
 - a. HL: Focus on doing it
 - b. Conversation with Audrey
 - c. Paying attention to Minchella
 - d. Ice cream in dish
 - i. Who poured ginger beer
 - ii. Chance to inspect bottle
 - e. Reason to be on your guard

Home exercise:

Create a series of Five-and-Out sequences for Audrey or Minchella, and try these out using the techniques demonstrated on the podcast.