

Final Argument #2

Final Argument #2 – Your First Words Demo

Here are possible introductions for the Final Argument on behalf of the Pursuer, Mrs. Donoghue:

1. Who is my neighbour? In the modern world, many things we do can affect those around us – even those we don't know, don't see and will never meet. We - all of us - have a duty of common decency to take reasonable precautions that our actions don't cause harm to the people impacted by our behaviour. That's what this case is about, My Lord.
2. Decomposed snails don't belong in commercially sold consumable products. They are dangerous to the consumer. Mrs. Donoghue was the victim of just such a hazard. Mr. Stevenson should be held liable for the consequences.
